PIRHL/AAU Hockey Zero Tolerance Policy

Players

A minor penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct (Zero Tolerance) shall be assessed whenever a player:

1. Openly disputes or argues any decision by an official.
2. Uses obscene or vulgar language at any time, including any swearing, even if it is not directed at a particular person.
3. Visually demonstrates any sign of dissatisfaction with an official's decision.

Any time that a player persists in any of these actions, they shall be assessed a misconduct penalty. A game misconduct shall result if the player continues such action.

Coaches

A minor penalty for unsportsmanlike conduct (Zero Tolerance) shall be assessed whenever a coach:

1. Openly disputes or argues any decision by an official.
2. Uses obscene or vulgar language at any time, including any swearing, even if it is not directed at a particular person.
3. Visually demonstrates any sign of dissatisfaction with an official's decision including standing on the boards or standing in the bench doorway with the intent of inciting the officials, players or spectators.

Any time that a coach persists in any of these actions, they shall be assessed a game misconduct penalty resulting in a suspension. If this behavior happens again, the PIRHL Board will decide if the coach should be permitted on the bench again.

If a coach wishes to question an official's call, he may only do so when it is related to a rules interpretation, not a judgment call. The coach should send his captain or assistant captain to ask the official the pertinent question.

Officials

Officials are required to conduct themselves in a businesslike, sportsmanlike, impartial and constructive manner at all times. The actions of an official must be above reproach. Actions such as "Baiting" or inciting players or coaches are strictly prohibited.

Officials are ambassadors of the game and must always conduct themselves with this responsibility in mind.

If an Official does not follow conduct themselves this way, please notify PIRHL Commissioner. The Official will be suspended and fined for their actions.

Parents/Spectators

Game officials will stop the game when the parents/spectators displaying inappropriate and disruptive behavior interfere with other spectators of the game. The game officials will identify violators to the coaches for the purpose of removing parents/spectators from the spectator's viewing and game area. Once removed, play will resume. Lost time will not be replaced. The offending team spectator will cause a five (5) minute major to be assessed to their team. Violators may be subject to further disciplinary action by the local governing body or the PIRHL. This inappropriate and disruptive behavior shall include.

1. Use of obscene or vulgar language in a boisterous manner to anyone at any time.
2. Taunting of players, coaches, officials or other spectators by means of baiting, ridiculing, physical violence or threat of physical violence.
3. Throwing of any object in the spectators' viewing area, players' bench, penalty box or on the playing surface, directed in any manner as to create a safety hazard.
